Coen and Hust Make Futile Attempt to Amend Ordinance Permitting Approved Places; More Murphree Protests.

Unavailing effort was made at the meeting of the council last night to amend the ordinance, when it came up for passage on second reading, by striking out the provision permitting institutions in the city when a block is leased for ten years. Mr. Coen moved to cut out the provision and Dr. Hust seconded.
The amendment was defeated 6 to 2.

"It doesn't seem right to invite these people here and then tell them to get out in the country," said Alderman Hammond. "There isn't half the danger from a sanatorium that there is from a rooming house that caters to that class. I live close to a sanatorium."

Permission from council must be obtained before sanatoriums may be established here, even on block-sites leased for ten years. The present institutions will be notified by City Clerk Thomas Hughes to file application for permits to operate, and they will be granted at the next meeting of council.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pierce protested against the erection of a sanatorium they heard Dr. Murphree wants to build within half a block of their residence. Mr. Pierce said he knew of a man who had planned a $10,000 house to face Highland park who would not build if the sanatorium went up.

An ordinance prohibiting automobiles with more than 15-candle-power was passed on its first reading.
Dr. Hust and Mr. Skinner spoke in favor of it.

A delegation from the Retail Merchants' association asked that a high license be placed on the selling of trading stamps. The matter was taken under advisement.

DREAM OF FAIR WOMEN SOON TO BE STAGED

Rehearsals are going forward for the production of Tennessee's "Dream of Fair Women" to be staged in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening April 6th. The Christian Endeavor society of the Third and Broadway Christian church is sponsoring the entertainment that includes forty people in the cast. Mrs. N. J. Strum-quist, Jr., is the coach. Although the performers all rank in the non-professional class, several who will act in leading roles are viced in home talent stagers, and well known to local audiences.

With musical intermezzo numbers and accompaniment for lines and songs, with hundreds of blossoms and brilliant costumes, this one-act drama promises to be an artistic production, that will please and entertain. Mr. Barker and Mr. Spaulding have charge of the song numbers and the piano and violin music will be rendered by Miss Irene Patch and Harold Patch.

most talented improvisators ever

POWERFUL PROGRAM IS THAT OF THE
FLYING SQUADRON

Three Days in Albuquerque will be Made Notable by Speakers Who Have Stirred Audiences All Over Nation.

Albuquerque is preparing to hear a program, that is designed to stir men's consciousness to the real issues that confront this and every American city. That this issue is not tariff, not finance, not child labor nor woman's suffrage, nor prohibition, but is human welfare, will be shown by the orators of the Flying Squadron to be in Albuquerque one week from today, March 30th, March 31st and April 1st.

Everywhere this aggregation of speakers and musicians have gone of the 171 cities visited thus far, there has been a marked effect of crystallizing the sentiment of their audiences upon the question of nation wide prohibition of the liquor traffic.
Former Governor J. Frank Hanly of Indiana, chairman of the executive committee of the Flying Squadron is known from Maine to California and from Oregon to Florida for his zeal in the cause of prohibition. Hon. Oliver Wayne Stewart, former member of the Illinois legislature and a possessor of intense personality and deep enthusiasm is a "silver tongued orator of exceptional polish. Mr. Stewart will be one of the three day speakers with Governor Hanley and Hon.
John R. Lewis. The latter is a retired Boston shoe merchant and former member of his state legislature, who gave of his own funds, $10,000 to finance the tour of the Squadron.

The first day, the personnel of the Squadron will be: Daniel Poling, associate president of American Christian Endeavor, whose eloquence and platform grace, have moved multitudes; Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, whose style is more that of an author than lecturer whose books are read in seventeen languages; Mr. D. V. Polling, musical director, who is said to have the loudest face and the richest voice on the lecture platform of America, and William Patton, plan-neter.

The second day speakers and entertainers will be: Dr. Ira Landrith, president of the Ward-Belmont college, Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Landrith is a Texan and a Democrat who declares that the D in Democracy ought to show for Democracy or Death. Just as the R in Republican should stand for Respectability or Ruin; the P in Prohibition for Proletariat or Perdition.
Dr. Landrith is a thorough student of the Y. M. C. A. movement.

With him will be Dr. Carolyn Gel-sel, who has few equals and no superiors as a lecturer. She always salu-tizes her audiences with the logic of a physician and the appeal of a consecrated woman. With this group is Frederick Butler, famed as the world's greatest interpreter of sacred music. Mr. Butler was formerly director of music of the Allen Nelson Opera company, and later traveled with Rev. Chapman as musical evangelist. The pianist of this group is Mrs. Frederick Butler.

The third day, with Governor Hanley, Oliver Stewart and John R. Lewis will be Mrs. V. K. Mullin, a soprano solist of Chattanooga and Lockport Ferdinand. Dr. Landrith is a thor-
ment.

From here the three companies go to Santa Fe for a similar three-day campaign and are booked in Pueblo, Colorado, after the Santa Fe engagement.

Seekers will be free to all, in the Women's club building at 1:30 every afternoon, and in the high school auditorium at night beginning at 7:30.

COUNTY MAY BUY CITY THOUSAND FEET OF ROSE

Assistant District Attorney H. B.
Jamison is considering whether the county can legally buy 1,000 feet of rose for the city. The question was referred to him yesterday afternoon when the commissioners received a communication from Chairman Crenshaw of the county board. Mr. Crenshaw called attention to the fact that the city firemen frequently announce that the county owes them $1,000 for the hose they have used by way of pay pro quo. If the district attorney's office says it can do, the commissioners will probably give the order for hose.

President of the John-Manville company, will deliver an address on "The Business Man's Era" at the dinner to be held under the auspices of the Retail Merchants' association April 13.
Mr. Smith, who is a Y. M. C. A. volunteer, will be brought here by the directors of the Y. M. C. A. He will stop here on his way from Seattle to Chicago.

Louis S. Frith, who publishes the Carson City News at Gallup, is spending the day in Albuquerque. Mr.
Frith bought the Republican at Gallap three months ago, changed the name of the paper to the Carson City News, and though he had had no previous experience in the newspaper business he is making a decided success of his venture.

Business and Professional Men to Be Urged to Attend Baseball Meeting Friday; Matson President.

Meeting at the store of O. A. Matson this afternoon, a committee of five baseball supporters got together for a week-end-up campaign in connection with the proposition to put an Albuquerque team in the Rio Grande association. The committee was appointed at a meeting of fans last night to canvass business and professional men of the city and request their attendance at a meeting to be held Friday night at the Commercial club. The committee is composed of Ernest A. Davis, Ike Graham, Charles Kins, W. T. McVright and George H. Craig.

At the meeting last night, which was attended by a score of fans, declared O. A. Matson was elected president and E. A. Davis secretary of a temporary organization. George M.
Reed, who with Ward Lebel, is trying to promote the club, addressed the meeting. A comparatively small sum would put the club on its feet, he said.
A fund of $2,500, the contributors to receive stock for their contributions, he believed, would be ample to get the club well started.

At least six and possibly eight clubs will be in the league, Mr. Reed said.
El Paso, Phoenix, Tucson, Bismarck, Douglas, Silver City, Deming and Las Cruces are mentioned in connection with the circuit.

of next week in connection with the annual clean-up. The clean-up will begin next Monday, and following the rounds in the fourth and first wards, the wagons will appear in the third and second wards. The highland section will be visited last.

James Peak will manage the cleaning campaign. About a half a dozen wagons will be in service.
Residents in the fourth ward and the first ward district bracketed with it are to have their yards cleaned and the trash piled for removal Monday morning. People of other sections will be notified when to have their trash ready for the scavenger.

On their rounds the clean-up drivers will note where householders have failed to clean up, and report their names. The health officer will be around to see the delinquents.
